A Golden Crown Literary Award Finalist!

Reviewer Salem West of the Rainbow Reader says: "Being the Steel Drummer is one of the very best whodunits to hit the bookshelves this year. It's well written, well plotted, intricate, and inventive...surprisingly wrapped in a rich, lusty romance. The story is plot-driven and complex, and is focused on a puzzle that spans more than 140 years...The more modern love story between Maggie and her inamorata, Dr. Kathryn Anthony, cleverly and keenly illustrates the similarities and differences between sex and sexuality across the ages. (And includes) what can arguably be described as one of the most well written bondage scenes in all of lesbian literature."

LGBT Business Council of

The Chamber
GREATER LEHIGH VALLEY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Pennsylvania Diversity Network's Mission: To foster strength and vitality in the LGBT community by providing news, information, health programs and other services.

Here's some of what Pennsylvania Diversity Network has done for the community in the last year or so:

1. The Valley Gay Press - The Greater Lehigh Valley & Berks County Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, & Transgender Community News & Opinion Paper (VGP)

Produced and distributed bimonthly issues in hard-copy and now available on-line at the PDN website, the Valley Gay Press brings news and information to the Lehigh Valley Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, and Transgender community and its allies. The VGP works to support the not-for-profit Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, Transgender and allied organizations in the Greater Lehigh Valley and Berks County by providing a free opportunity to make the community aware of their group, organization, project or event. Articles about local Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, Transgender and allied not-for-profits are printed and distributed without charge. The VGP encourages for-profit enterprises to host fund raising events for not-for-profit organizations by advertising such events free of charge. Valley Free Press reporters investigate and present news articles about local issues of interest to the Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, Transgender and allied community. The VGP hosts 10 regular original GLBT content columns and features and dozens of original articles, per issue, that present information, points of view, and humor to the Eastern Pennsylvania Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, Transgender and allied community. Nationally, only a small handful of GLBT community publications feature local original reporting and columns. The VGP, as a community newspaper, is a unique publication due to its high quality original material. The VGP is distributed to 30 locations and mailed to PDN members. It has been in publication for 15 years.

2. Pennsylvania Diversity Network Resource Website:

The Pennsylvania Diversity Network Resource Website, <www.padiversity.org>, is the largest GLBT resource website in Pennsylvania. It contains referrals of over 400 GLBT-friendly businesses, organizations, groups, and service providers. This website particularly provides listings of specialized and unique services needed by Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual and Transgender community members. These specialized services include, but are not limited to, physicians, health care practitioners, legal services, counselors and therapists, fertility services, advocacy, and social & support groups who specialize in services for GLBT adults and GLBT youth. The website also is a resource for national, state-wide, and local civil rights information of specific interest to the GLBT community.

3. Social Media: Pennsylvania Diversity Network began to use Facebook and Twitter to broaden the organization's reach to the community and to provide more time sensitive and current information about news, activities, and civil rights pertinent to the local community. The Facebook page has grown to over 1,000 members. PDN often breaks GLBT news stories long before any other news media mentions them.
